INTRODUCTION

This collection contains genealogical data on the Allen, Armstrong, Dodson (Dotson), Hanks, Hightower, Lapsley, Senter, Witherspoon, and related families of Tennessee, North Carolina, and Kentucky. The largest single part of the collection is genealogical letters written by Mr. Frank Fuller to Miss Rebekah Senter about the Dodson family. In addition to a large number of genealogical letters, there are typed copies of wills, marriage records, Bible records, pension records, and deeds. The Rebekah Senter Collection was given to the Manuscript Unit of the Tennessee State Library and Archives by Miss Rebekah Senter of Nashville, Tennessee.

The materials in this collection measure .42 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Rebekah Senter Collection may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

Addition, 1971:

Addition to the Rebekah Senter Collection, consisting of approximately 100 items, contains genealogical data for the years ca. 1612-1963 on the families of Baugh, Cureton, Dickson, Grigsby, Hough, Ellis, Eppes, Rogers, and Senter (Center). These materials were donated by Miss Rebekah Senter of Nashville, Tennessee. A portion of the Baugh family data was compiled by Mrs. Cecelia Baugh Shepard of Columbia, Tennessee, and given to Miss Senter to add to her collection.

The second addition in 1971 (which is addition 3) to the Rebekah Senter Collection consists of genealogical data for the years 1668-1971 on the families of Baugh, Coldough, Senter, and West. The donor of these materials was Miss Senter.
